(d) what are the reasons for decline in the above sector; and

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF COMMERCE AND INDUSTRY (DR. RAMAN SINGH): (a) and (b) Yes, Sir. The six infrastructure industries namely, Crude Petroleum, Petroleum Refinery Products, Cement, Finished steel, Coal and Electricity have registered higher growth rate since December 2001 vis-a-vis corresponding months of the last year. The comparative growth rates achieved by these six industries since December, 2001 are given below:

Month	Growth Rate (%)
	2000-01	2001-02
December	2.7	4.1
January	1.6	5.8
February	-1.0	4.7
March	0.4	4.6

(c) and (d) The Crude petroleum sector has registred growth of -1.2 per cent during 2001-02 as against 1.5 per cent achieve during 2000-01. The reasons for this declining trend are mainly unit specific and include socio-environment problems, reservoir problems, less gains from exploratory wells, fire, line leakages, increase in water cut, bandhs and miscreant activities.

(e) The steady overall growth hinges on the pace with which the domestic demand improves and the recovery in global economy takes place. There are signs of recovery in some industries, besides recovery signals in the U.S. economy during the last few months.
